

My Dearest <sup>Tramont</sup> <sup>Salisbury</sup> <sup>1689</sup> fyve the 20 aprill

I have last now received the post letters and some private Letters all of them agree that there is an order given for the apprehending of you ~~you~~ I have sent you on inclosed all the rest as soon as possible there is a friend writes to me of Jameson that he ~~has~~ <sup>has</sup> reciev'd a letter from Seton Gordons son to his father wherein he says there is an order given to apprehend the Earl of Dunfermeling and I got a letter from my mother this night wherein she intreats you to have a pair of your self and pages as much as the rest was she tells me too that it was thought there was a letter and a Comishen too you from the King amongst those which was taken from yesterday, Alexander also wrote me this night, you told me that the vicount of Dundee was com north and that he had orders from you to wait on him so he sent his son know if he can this way I have ordered midown today nothing of it I hope will oblige me this afternoon one of the persons who lives in the house and the chamber the two couples with us and you by with today wear at dinner withes and said other a great while I am apprehensive they may be spies I do not doubt but they send some party out of the south for help when in this country for that you God bless him this you my Lord surely had a person and too many than know how they going to Dunfermeling